Original Artwork Sought for August 2025 Exhibition

Native Roots

Community Wall, Santa Cruz County Government Building

The San Lorenzo Valley Museum is seeking original artwork from local artists. Please submit photographs or digital images of up to five (5) works with your entry form. There is no fee to participate.

Exhibition Dates: August 1 – August 31, 2025

Location: 701 Ocean Street, Santa Cruz, CA 95060

Exhibition: Native Roots - Pictorial images depicting California native flora: Flowers, ferns, grasses, shrubs, vines, trees etc. Native plants are the foundation of our ecosystem. This exhibition aims to foster education and awareness of native plants while advocating for their protection in the form of environmental stewardship. Visit our living exhibition, Flora, in person or via iNaturalist or calscape for plant resources.

Media:

- Painting – oil, acrylic, watercolor, gouache
- Dry Media – pastel, charcoal, pencil
- Mixed Media – encaustic, collage, etc.
- Photography – black and white, color
- Needlework

Eligibility: Local Santa Cruz County artists may submit up to five (5) works for consideration. All work must be original in concept; no compositions taken from published or copyrighted materials.

To Enter: Submit photographs or digital images of artwork to be considered. Indicate size of each piece, including frame.

Artwork Size: Minimum 5”x7” or 35 square inches, maximum not to exceed 36” incl. frame in either direction.

Presentation: Art must be adequately framed, wired, and ready for hanging. Wire in good condition, not too long. Preferably no saw tooth hangers.

Sale: Works in the exhibition will not be for sale, but your name, biography, and contact information will be available to the public, both at the exhibition and on the Museum website.
